The Weekly Gazette is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the Daily to select from, we challenge comparison with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political action, in reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all quarters, in literary merit and in local information relating to this city and county, we stand upon no pains to make the Weekly Gazette worthy of public patronage and support.

THE NEWS

Governor Seymour of New York, who is never so happy as when he is making himself miserable over real or fancied errors of the authorities at Washington, has addressed a letter to Secretary Stanton, in which he complains most bitterly of the discrepancy of the quotas between his own and other States. The letter will be found in full in our telegraphic columns. He says the quota in the 31st Congressional District of New York are 2,886, while in New Hampshire they are only 2,107, and in Pennsylvania but 2,571. The Governor might have carried his comparisons still further, and ascertained that this Congressional district is required to furnish 3,672, or about 800 more than the districts of which he complains.

Nobody will be at a loss to guess the object of addressing this open letter to the Secretary of War at this critical period in our affairs. He seized this opportunity to fan the embers of discontent by parading before the prejudiced eyes of his followers in New York, that which could have been done privately much better. He will have his reward.

General E. I. McCook who was reported captured near Newman, has come in with 1200 men, and it is expected that others will yet arrive within our lines in safety. The disaster is to be attributed to a too free use of whisky which McCook's forces had just captured.

There is now no longer any room to doubt that the rebels are making an incursion northward in full force. While we write, they are well established upon Pennsylvania soil, and the Proclamation of Governor Curtin, calling for 30,000 more troops is but another evidence of how imminent is the peril. It is ill now to make complaints, or lay the blame upon the authorities here or there, the danger stares us in the face and the bloody tragedy of Gettysburg is to be repeated. Our divisions at home and the apathy manifested in some States in regard to filling their quotas, has invited the rebels to visit the North where they have every reason to believe they have many friends to welcome them.

A gleam of light comes to us from Mobile. Commodore Farragut has passed the two outer forts, and is bombarding the city with a fair prospect of success. It is so easy to take cities on paper that our dispatches have almost lost possession of it. The gold gamblers did not let slip the opportunity to make something out of the coming of their friends across the Potomac. It is quoted at $2.50.

The honorary certificates of personal representation in the army of the United States have been issued by the Government, and can be obtained from local Provost Marshals. They are in the form of diploma, payable by being framed. They set forth that A. B., a citizen of the United States, not being required by law to perform any military service, has voluntarily, and at his own expense, furnished a representative recruit to serve in his stead in the military forces of the Union; he is in accordance with this foregoing order, entitled to this acknowledgment of his distinguished patriotic and public spirit.

Last Thursday the steamer Ontonagon broke her piston rod and stove a hole, and the water gushing in the pony engine was set to work, but it also broke, and her situation became critical. Fortunately the breeze being favorable, the sails were set and she drifted toward the shore of Bear Island, Lake Huron, where she speedily sunk. All the passengers were saved by the steamer Lulu, but the cargo had been thrown out to keep her afloat as long as possible.

Rev. DANIEL WALDO died at Syracuse on Saturday last. He was nearly 102 years old, having been born in September, 1762. He graduated at Yale College in 1793, and soon after entered the ministry in the Congregational Church. In 1850 he was elected Chaplain in the House of Representatives. He had been remarkably strong and healthy, having frequently while the past year preached two sermons in one Sunday.

The Brokers' Room in the new building just finished in New York for the "Open Board" is fairly crowded. In the center of the ceiling is represented the God-father of Fortune emptying a salver of coin upon the heads of a bull and a bear, the latter in the act of hugging the pieces to the earth, while the former tosses them in the air.

SAMUEL MITCHELL, whose farm is on the line between Hartford and Windsor in Connecticut, has just harvested one acre of wheat, and its yield is over 45 bushels. It was raised on land from which a crop of tobacco was raised last year. He says that following a crop of tobacco he can always get a good yield of wheat.

A SOLDIER of the Twentieth Army Corps, writing from Chattanooga, says that the clamor of the army, now is " tobacco and Atlanta." He goes on to say that if people desire to make the soldiers happy, they should send them tobacco.

SENT SOUTH.—The proprietors of the Frederick (Md.) Citizen have been sent south among their rebel friends. It has been a malignant reviler of our government for a year past.

The St. Louis Democrat has raised the price of its daily issue to 25 cents a week, or $12 a year.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. C. A. Staples, of Milwaukee, arrived in the city this afternoon, and will preach in the Court Room to-morrow morning and evening.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON TUESDAY, the 9th day of August inst., the bridge across the river at Monterey will be replanked, and there will be no crossing with teams from seven o'clock p. m. until six o'clock p. m. of said day.

By order of Bridge Committee.

S. C. AUGER, Secy.

JANESVILLE MISS' SOCIETY.—The regular monthly concert of this society will be held in the M. E. Church to-morrow evening. Exercises by the S. School. The music, consisting of solos, duets and choruses, is taken in part from Bradbury's new book "The Golden Censer." Contrary to the usual custom in these meetings, the audience will be seated in the body pews, the school occupying the side seats.

ITEMS FROM THE BELT JOURNAL.—Two of our well-known citizens have just procured, as substitutes for the war, a couple of contrabands who some time ago came up from Island No. 10 with two officers on their return home. They are young men full of pluck, and will no doubt give a good report of themselves.

Last week, the dogs ran ragged.—For several successive days, the thermometer was among the nineties, and on Friday, reached 100°. Such weather is inviting to corn, but awfully willing to men.

The air here swarms with chinch bugs. The like, it is said, has never been seen here before. What does it mean? Give a solution, oh ye wise ones!

On Tuesday last, a barn on the bluff, on the west side of the river, was destroyed by fire. Some boys had been inside firing a cannon, and the walls falling among the hay set it on fire. A fire engine was on the ground, but a lack of water in the cistern near by rendered it useless. The barn was owned by Mrs. Ormby.

Mrs. Gov. Harvey has been in the city, stopping with her friends.—She will soon return to Yekburg; and that she is doing a good work is evidenced from the following. A correspondent of the Maitland Tribune writes:—

"Our boys here are well looked after, as Mrs. Gov. Harvey is here and un-mitting in her labors. Many are the soldiers who will bless her while living, and teach their children to bless her when they are dead. May she live long in the land, and Heaven's choicest blessings descend upon her, so that her future years shall recompense her for sacrifices made during the war."

A GENTLEMAN residing on the coast of England writes to the London Times that he distinctly heard the firing of the Alabama and Kearsarge. His house is situated on an elevation of 110 feet above the surrounding district, and is distant 115 miles from the scene of the conflict.

MARRIED.

At the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., on Thursday, August 4th, 1864, by Rev. J. M. Smith, D. D., of the Episcopal Church, was solemnized the marriage of Miss Mary A. Smith, of this city, to Mr. John A. Smith, of Washington, D. C.

DIED.

COTTSCALK ON KNABE.
[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of M^{rs}. Kine-& Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without labour, the middle clear and sweet, clear and harmoniously in accord, (brilliant), and I do not hesitate to express in favour of these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or

and vicinity by the most reliable
